Cost of Attendance (Loan) Supplement 2023 – 2024 Academic Year

In general, the financial aid you receive cannot exceed the Cost of Attendance or "COA." Eligibility for PLUS and Private Loans is determined by the equation "Cost of Attendance" minus "All Financial Aid".

Use this form to report additional costs you believe should be included in your "cost of attendance." The budget already includes $6000 for on-campus housing; $12,480 for off-campus housing/meals, $1350 for books, $1950 for personal expenses, and $1150 for travel.

If necessary to secure a loan to cover the amount owed, may we reduce or eliminate Work-Study you may have? Yes No

Calculating Travel Costs (one of three scenarios):

If commuting daily by car, multiply the daily roundtrip miles by 98 to get the total travel cost, then subtract $1150. Enter that amount.
Roundtrip miles _____ x 98 = total travel cost $ _____ minus $1150 = travel allowance to report above

If you live out of state and will drive to campus, provide the estimated roundtrip mileage from your house to the College.

Roundtrip miles _____ x # of trips _____ x $0.655 = travel cost $ _____ minus $1150 = travel allowance to report above

If you will travel to campus by plane, train or bus, show us how you estimate the cost [copy of travel itinerary, printout from Web site (airline, Expedia.com, etc). and the number of trips expected]. Include cab fare from the airport, bus/train station. Subtract $1150 from the total cost to arrive at the travel allowance to report above.
